

Good morning! Here are the announcement for Monday 11/28/22

- The Jackson Toy Drive starts TODAY and goes until December 9th, donations can be made by "Henry the giving snowman"! So, if you can make sure to donate!
- Football, baseball, basketball, softball. What do these all have in common?... That's right! Sports. Join Sports Club tomorrow in portable 15 for our first meeting ever!
- Do you know someone who needs a mattress? Come to JHS Music's 3rd annual mattress fundraiser this Saturday. Come support the orchestra, choir, and band! Free sheets will be included with your purchase!
- Have you bought your Yearbook yet? Don't miss out – yearbook sales re-open THIS FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2nd and close again on Friday, December 16th, so these last 2 weeks before winter break are your last chance to buy a book before they come out at the end of the year. Secure your copy today!
- Hey T-wolves!!! The fashion club is hosting its first fashion show TODAY @ 4pm in the annex, entrance is free!!! Bring a friend or two. Hope to see you there!
- The Jackson dance team is hosting their annual winter showcase this Saturday at 5 pm at Heatherwood Middle School. Various dance teams and studios including our own, will be performing their competition routines! Tickets are available for purchase at the ASB office or at the door, so make sure to come!
- Attention all student-athletes interested in turning out for SOFTBALL this upcoming spring – there will be a preseason informational meeting on Wednesday, November 30 at 2:10pm in Coach Peacocke's classroom (C214).
- Jackson High School won their girls bowling match against Everett High school 3-0 last Monday to keep their record undefeated on the season. They will have another bowling match today at 3:15 at Bowlero!
