

Good morning! Here are today's announcements:

- Seniors! Do you want to make a Senior Superlative nomination for a superlative that hasn't been done? THIS WEEK ONLY, vote for yourself or a friend at the link on the Jackson website under Senior Class Information to have a chance of your superlative being featured in the Yearbook this year!
- Attention Timberwolves!! With Valentine's day two weeks away, the senior class will be selling candy grams all of next week, except for Tuesday, for only three dollars during both lunches. They will be delivered to any student or staff member on the 14th! so make sure to swing by the stage during your lunch time to purchase a candy gram!
- Feeling a little stress from finals? Come to the library today, wednesday, and thursday for therapy dogs to destress and relax!
- Japanese Culture Club will be selling spam musubi during lunch to help fundraise money for relief efforts for Japan. We will be selling them on the stage during 1st and 2nd lunch, buy one before we run out!
- On February 2nd, our very own FCCLA chapter is having a Skinny D's fundraiser! Come swing by for a relaxing, after semester treat and support them in their journey to state! Mention Jackson FCCLA when you are buying your froyo in order to get a portion of the cost donated to FCCLA.
- "Attention Poetry Club members! We will be meeting today after school in D213, Mr. Andersen's room to workshop another poem and listen to a performance.
- Want to learn more about Africa and its rich culture? Come to the Africa Umoja meeting right after school. There is going to be African food and games in Room C104 at 2:10 pm.
- Don't forget to come to the TSA meeting after school in the library today. We'll be going over important state conference deadlines and requirements, as well as possible conflicts with the online SAT.
- Attention HOSA! Make sure you've paid your fee for SLC to the ASB office or through online payments! Tomorrow is the deadline for the payment. We'll see you all at next weeks meeting!

Here are today's student recognition

- Congratulations Raye Randall and Rye Northall for earning Gold at FCCLA regional competition! They will be continuing on to state in March.

Congratulations too our girls wrestling team who won their first dual in meet in school history and for placing 3rd in the wesco championships last week. Top Individual performances included WESCO champion Alex Morales and WESCO runner up Emily Ortiz and Amariana Clark. Good luck this week at sub regionals Friday at Oak Harbor.

Enjoy your Tuesday 😊
