

In case you need them for your reference...here are today's announcements:

- Seniors! Do you want to make a Senior Superlative nomination for a superlative that hasn't been done? THIS WEEK ONLY, vote for yourself or a friend at the link on the Jackson website under Senior Class Information to have a chance of your superlative being featured in the Yearbook this year!
- Score reports are available for students who took the Fall World Language Assessment! Stop by the Success Center, room C-202, before or after school, or during both lunches to pick yours up.
- Feeling a little stress from finals? Come to the library today and thursday for therapy dogs to destress and relax!
- Japanese Culture Club will be selling spam musubi during lunch to help fundraise money for relief efforts for Japan. We will be selling them on the stage during 1st and 2nd lunch, buy one before we run out!
- On February 2nd, our very own FCCLA chapter is having a Skinny D's fundraiser! Come swing by for a relaxing, after semester treat and support them in their journey to state!
- Attention HOSA! Make sure you've paid your fee for SLC to the ASB office or through online payments! TODAY is the deadline for the payment. We'll see you all at next weeks meeting!
- Interested in traveling to Korea? Join Korean Student Association for our January meeting TOMORROW^t in Portable 3! We'll be teaching everything you need to know about traveling to Korea, from food to fashion to popular destinations, learning how to speak common phrases, and playing games for tasty prizes!
- Want to learn more about Africa and its rich culture? Come to the Africa Umoja meeting right after school. There is going to be African food and games in Room C104 at 2:10 pm.
- Hey Red Cross Club! We have a meeting today after school in Mrs. McEntire's room C219. We will be reintroducing officers, signing up for the Red Cross, and ending with a fun game! We hope to see you there!
- The Den is closed today. We hope to be back to serve your favorite pizza and signature beverages tomorrow!

Enjoy your Wednesday 😊
