Thursday, February 26th

- After School Sports News. Today our 7th & 8th Grade girls basketball team plays its second “away game” against Evergreen Middle School. Early dismissal will be at 2:30 pm. Listen for the announcement.
- Nee dohs, fit checks, candy grams, Seattle pro sports teams. The yearbook staff wants to know your thoughts on these topics. Take a minute and fill in the Google Forms Mrs. Stoskopf emailed to your Outlook account yesterday afternoon and this morning.
- After School Club News. Thursday is Youth & Government, where you learn about debate, create laws and how to make legal changes in our government. This is a club for 7th & 8th graders. Come join us in room 207. AV Club in Mrs Takasaki's room 216 from 3-4 pm. If you love videos, music, technology, cameras, microphones, and editing tools, this is your club. Board Game Club is in room 409. Study Club is in the Library. This club is for doing homework and getting help with homework.
- Bell to Bell no Cell. What does this mean exactly? Well, my fellow Gateway Guardians, it means your cell phone needs to be powered off and in your backpack, all day while at school. It also means not using your digital watch for texting or data search. Pass it along.

And remember Guardians, your attitude shapes your day
— choose positivity it is the Gate-way!

NEWS (GBN)

Wednesday, February 25th

- It's Random Acts of Kindness Month. Help someone find their classroom or carry something—kindness lives in the hallways too.
- Gateway Guardians, as you may know, we have the Clover Clean-out next week! Make sure to get those gently used clothes and books handy because if you donate next week, you will get a raffle ticket to enter for a prize drawing during lunch.
- During Black History Month, we celebrate Mark Dean, a computer scientist at IBM, who helped invent parts of the personal computer. His work helped make computers a part of everyday life. He is in the National Inventors Hall of Fame.
- School Sports News Girls Basketball game results ...
- The 8th grade girls won their 3rd game in a row against Voyager by a score of 52 to 21. Ivory Ware and Isabella Calixto both scored in double digits while Calista Jamin and Sage Oden both played remarkably at the point. All players scored in a complete team effort.
- The 7th grade girls won against Voyager by a score of 42-7. Everyone did a great job working together and all players got many minutes in each quarter. 9 out of 12 players scored. Great job, girls, I am proud of your team effort and support.
- Jackson High School news. Are you attending Jackson High School next year? Are you enthusiastic about school sports? Are you yourself athletic and have a loud voice? Thinking about joining cheer and have questions? Stop by the Cheer Squad table at the 8th Grade Lunch today.
- After School Club News. Wednesday is Fandom CLUB in Room 305. It is an opportunity for students to celebrate stories and the characters they are passionate about. Share with other super fans using slides, videos and skits. Join in the fun. Study Club will be cancelled for today. See you tomorrow!
- School Bus Transportation. Remember, if you ride the bus home after school, , please go directly to the bus line. If you miss the bus, you need to come to the Front Office so we can call your parents.

Tuesday, February 24th

- All clubs are Cancelled today due to our Staff Meeting, see you next time!
- As part of Random Acts of Kindness Month, help keep our school clean and welcoming by taking care of shared spaces.
- Not every important figure is famous. Black History Month honors teachers, nurses, parents, and community leaders who made a difference through service and dedication.
- After School Sports News. Today our 7th & 8th Grade girls basketball team plays its “third” home game of the season, playing against Voyager Middle School. Let’s cheer them on for a win today!
- Gateway Wrestling starts today, immediately after school. All athletes must be cleared to participate in Final Forms and should make sure they have their water bottle, athletic shirt, shorts, + wrestling shoes with them for all practices. Athletes will meet Coach Dockter at the outside locker room doors immediately after 6th period is dismissed. See you after school!
- When does Builder’s Club meet again? Next week on Tuesday, March, 3rd! Visit Mr. Rentko’s room after school and earn another official hour of community service credit. Start building your resume with volunteer work that can help you meet future graduation requirements in high school.

NEWS (GBN)

Monday, February 23rd

- Happy Monday Guardians, and welcome back from break! This is a reminder that during the first ten minutes of class, and during the last ten minutes of class, there are no restroom breaks. Be in class to focus on learning.
- From technology to music to food, Black History Month helps us remember and recognize how these individuals' contributions shape our everyday lives.
- After School Club News. Monday is Fiber Arts in Room B122. Learn to knit or crochet. All experience levels are welcome. Drama Club is in Room 412. Have you ever considered joining Drama Club? Well, now's your chance! Even though the play is only a few weeks away, there are still a few roles left, and Drama Club could always use help getting ready for the play. We hope to see you there!. Study Club is in the Library. This club is for doing homework and getting help with homework. It is not an activity club but a quiet time to read your books.
- School Bus Transportation. Remember, if you ride the bus home after school, please go directly to the bus line. If you miss the bus, you need to come to the Front Office so we can call your parents.
- Remember Gateway is a Scent Free School. This means you can not wear perfume, cologne, scented lotions, scented hair spray or other fragrances while at school. The chemicals used in scented products make people sick, especially those with asthma and allergies and other medical conditions. Let's keep the air we breathe healthy for everyone.
- Bell to Bell no Cell. What does this mean exactly? Well, my fellow Gateway Guardians, it means your cell phone needs to be powered off and in your backpack, all day while at school. It also means not using your digital watch for texting or data search. Pass it along.
- Jackson High School news. Are you attending Jackson High School next year? Are you enthusiastic about school sports? Are you yourself athletic and have a loud voice? Not sure about cheer and have questions? Stop by the Cheer Squad table at the 8th Grade Lunch tomorrow.
- Reminder. This reminder is for students & teachers. Students, if you received a notice before Mid-Winter Break for testing in the Library today, please check in with your 1st period teacher and head to the Library now.
- Gateway Wrestling starts tomorrow, Tuesday, Feb 24th immediately after school. Remember, wrestling is a co-ed sport, and we need both male and female athletes of all sizes, 80lbs all the way up to over 200lb! All athletes must be cleared to participate in Final Forms and should make sure they have their water bottle, athletic shirt, shorts, + wrestling shoes with them for all practices. Want to join last minutes or check your Final Forms status? Please speak with Mrs. Laurie in the main office today! Hope to see many of you tomorrow!
