

Earn world language credit

You can earn high school world language credits in 7th or 8th grade if you can fluently read, write, speak, and listen in a language other than English!

Take the world language assessment!

Earn up to four proficiency-based high school credits

Earn credit towards the world language course graduation requirement

Qualifying students can earn the Seal of Biliteracy: special recognition at commencement and on transcripts

Registration open now through September 30

Register at the front office. Cost is $10

World Language Assessment:

Wednesday,
October 20, 2021
Registration required

