

All tank tops should have straps that are three-fingers (2 inches wide) and completely cover undergarments (no visible straps)

Spaghetti straps, ribbon straps, camisoles less than two inches wide are not allowed.

Halter tops, backless shirts,
shirts that tie around the neck
are not allowed

Shirts that expose the midriff are not allowed

Shirts that expose one or both shoulders are not allowed

Shirts that expose any part of an undergarment (bra OR camisole) not allowed.

Racerback shirts with any part of an undergarment (bra OR camisole) not allowed.

Racerback shirts that do not expose undergarments are allowed.

Ripped jeans that expose skin above the knee (upper and mid thigh) are not allowed.

All shorts and skirts are to exceed the length of fully extended arms at the sides. These are too short and not allowed.

All shorts and skirts are to exceed the length of fully extended arms at the sides.

Jeans or shorts that hang low and expose undergarments are not allowed.

Tank tops and sleeveless shirts must come all the way up under the armpit. Shirts that expose the chest or torso are not allowed.

Tank tops and sleeveless shirts must come all the way up under the armpit and must not expose the chest or torso.

Tips to Remember...

- Dress for success! You are at school, not the beach.
- Do not argue with staff. Their job is to focus on teaching. Students who argue may be subject to discipline.
- Follow the dress code. If you don't, you will be asked to change into...

Remember
to Guard Your Character!